Membership Application

The Patriot Daylily Society meets monthly in Bedford, Massachusetts, presently at the Bedford Library. Learn all there is to know about daylily culture and how to create your own daylily seedlings for your own garden. Educational seminars are presented monthly.

We are a registered 501(c)3 Non-Profit Organization.

Some benefits of membership in the Patriot Daylily Society include our programs and garden tours, as well as our web site at <http://patriotdaylilysociety.org>.

Members are welcome to have photos of their gardens as well as their seedlings and intros posted on our web site, with links to your own web site.

Monthly postcards and emails are sent out with meeting details.

Directions to PDS Meeting Room at Bedford Public Library:

From Rte. 95 (128) in Lexington, take Exit 31B (Rte. 4-225 West), travel 2.4 miles through Bedford Center, and turn left onto Mudge Way.

Take your first right and park in rear library lot.

Membership is $20 per year and $5 for each additional member of the household who joins.

Mail this form and a check for the membership fee, made out to Patriot Daylily Society, to Nick & Bobbie Chase, 132 Moreland St, Worcester, MA, 01609 or join at our next meeting (see web site). For more info, call Nick and Bobbie Chase at 508-757-2881 after 10:00 AM and up till 12:00 Midnight or e-mail Bobbie at estherleo@charter.net.

We meet the first weekend of each month, presently Saturday, noon to 3:00 PM
